COLORECTAL CANCER SCREENING WORKSHOPS

The Prevent Cancer Foundation and the National Colorectal Cancer Roundtable are proud to offer these workshops in support of the 80% by 2018 national CRC screening initiative:

- 1:00 – 2:20 p.m.
Beverly
- Messaging about Colorectal Cancer Screening to Asian Americans: A Look at the New Asian Americans and Colorectal Cancer Screening Companion Guide
- Come hear Karen Kim, MD, MS, who is one of the nation's experts in delivering culturally competent public health messages to Asian Americans. Participants will explore in depth the perceptions, barriers and facilitators to colorectal cancer screening in this diverse and dynamic population. While the workshop will focus on messaging around colorectal cancer screening, much of the advice will also help inform other public health campaigns that seek to reach Asian communities.*
- Speaker: Karen E. Kim, MD, MS, The University of Chicago
- 2:30 – 4:00 p.m.
Beverly
- How to Pay for Screening Navigation: A New Toolkit from the National Colorectal Cancer Roundtable and the Colorado School of Public Health
- Many in public health are firm believers in the power of screening navigation, but the trick is how you pay for it. Andi Dwyer will introduce you to the new toolkit How to Pay for Screening Navigation from the National Colorectal Cancer Roundtable and the University of Colorado School of Public Health. Come see what's in the kit, how it works and the real-world examples that inform its guiding principles.*
- Speaker: Andrea (Andi) Dwyer, Colorado School of Public Health, University of Colorado Cancer Center, and the NCCRT Steering Committee
- 1:00 – 3:15 p.m.
Dallas
- INFORMATION EXCHANGE ABOUT STATE AND TRIBAL COLORECTAL CANCER SCREENING PROGRAMS
- Because the Dialogue attracts participants from across the country, the 2017 Dialogue will again host this meeting of the National Colorectal Cancer Screening Network for peer-to-peer information sharing, in support of the "80% by 2018" national colorectal cancer screening initiative.*
- Moderators: Jennifer Boehm, MPH, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
Melissa Leypoldt, RN, Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services
Holly Wolf, PhD, Colorado School of Public Health and University of Colorado Cancer Center
