

Press Conference: Making the Link Between Viral Hepatitis and Liver Cancer
In Honor of Hepatitis Awareness Month

Thursday, May 19, 2016
9:00 – 9:45 a.m. ET
Outside Philadelphia City Hall
Northeast Entrance (The Apron)

Hosted by: Councilman David Oh (At Large)

Agenda

- 9:00am Welcoming Remarks
Councilman David Oh, Philadelphia City Council Member (At Large)
Councilwoman Helen Gym, Philadelphia City Council Member (At Large)
- 9:03 am Moderator: *Dr. Walter Tsou
- 9:06 am HBV and HCV in Philadelphia
Dr. Carolyn Johnson, Acting Deputy Health Commissioner, Philadelphia
Director, Division of Disease Control, Philadelphia Department of Public Health
- 9:09 am HBV and HCV and the Link with Liver Cancer
Dr. Edith Mitchell, Clinical Professor, Jefferson Health
Director, Center to Eliminate Cancer Disparities
Program Leader, Gastrointestinal Oncology
President, National Medical Association
- 9:12 am Local Impact of HBV and Liver Cancer
Dr. Hie-Won Hann, Director, Liver Disease Prevention Center at Division of Gastroenterology and Hepatology at Jefferson University Hospital
- 9:15 am Highlighting Liver Cancer Prevention as a Key to Addressing HBV and HCV
Carolyn R. Aldigé, President and Founder, Prevent Cancer Foundation
- 9:18 am Local Patient Story: Living with Hepatitis B
Introduced by Dr. Philip Siu, Medical Director, Chinatown Medical Services
Mrs. Jin Yun Yang, hepatitis B patient (discussing her personal journey with hepatitis B chronic infection)
- 9:23 am Presentation of City Council Resolution
Councilman David Oh
- 9:28 am Closing Remarks
Dr. Walter Tsou
- 9:30 am FILMING OF COALITION/STUDENT VIDEO with O’Liver (“Hepatitis No”)
- 9:45 am Event Conclusion